THE NEW DEPUTY COMMISSIONER OF PENSIONS. Col. W. E. McLean, of Terre Hante, Ind., who has recently been appointed Deputy Commissioner of Pensions, vice Judge Walker, resigned, was at the outbreak of the war a prominent Democratic politician and member of the Indiana Legislature, Gov. Morton commissioned him as Lieutenant-Colonel of the 43d Ind., and he led it to the field. His first service was under Gen. Crittenden in Kentucky. In March, 1862, he was transferred to Gen. Pope's army, and commanded his regiment in the operations against New Madrid, Island No. 10. Fort Pillow and Memphis. He was next sent to do duty in Arkansas, and remained in that State for the remainder of his service. At the bloody little battle of Helena, where Price, of Missouri, was so badly used up, Col. McLean commanded the First Brigade, First Division, and behaved so well that he was recommended for promotion. He commanded a brigade at the capture of Little Rock, Oct. 18, 1863, and March 1, 1864, led his brigade, which was a part of Steele's column, on the disastrous expedition which Steele made to Camden and the flank of the rebel army. He participated in all the battles of that sanguinary campaign, and returned with his regiment reduced to less than 200 in numbers. It was sent on veteran furlough home, and he remained there until mustered out. He has always been an enthustastic Grand Army man and organized the first Post in Indiana, which was named Morton Post, No. 1, and for a year and a half commanded the Department of Indiana. He was always been very active in everything pertain-important offices. THE PRESIDENT AND THE SOLDIERS. Last week a delegation consisting of Maj. N. M. Brooks, Commander Department of the Potomac; J. B. Burke, Senior Vice Commander, and C. H. Ingram, Commander of Post No. 8, called on the President and presented the following memorial:

HEADQUARTERS. DEPARTMENT OF THE POTOMAC. GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC. ROOM OF EMPLOYMENT COMMITTEE,

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 8, 1885. TO THE PRESIDENT AND CABINET: As you are aware the Gound Army of the Republic is a great civic non-partisan organization of ex-Union soldiers and sailors, whose chief public object is the promotion of good American citizenship-the cucouragement of national patriotism and the prac-tice of frateralty and charity. To encourage tonor and purity in public affairs is one of the high obligations of all its members. In the practice of charity one of the principal practical methods of earing for our comrades—perhaps the best—is by organized efforts to secure employment for those Who need it and are competent and worthy. All reasonable precamions are taken in this important matter to avoid improper indersements and recommendations, and so distinction of sect or party

In this city quite a large number of our comrades are in the emproyment of the Government, We are naturally solicitous for their retention in all cases where they perform their doties satisfactorily, except in high political offices.

We, therefore, beg leave respectfully to present ment service that consideration and protection in their places, where they are enabled to earn a living for themselves and families, which the spirit of widows and orphans, and the grateful sentiments of the people generally bespeak for them. We have performed this pleasant duty confidently in their behalf herstofore upon each change of National administration, always meeting with a kind and just response, and we renew it now with the same pleasure and confidence, and as in duty

The President received the delegation very cordially, and frankly expressed his entire sympathy with their views. He was surprised to learn that there were over 2,000 old sold ers In active membership of the G.A.R. in the Department of the Potomac. Commander Brooks invited the President to participate in the decoration services at Arlington, and the latter promised that he would do so if other engage- the Army of the Potomac, to be held in Baltiments permitted.

Capt. J. D. Vernay, 11th Ill., El Paso, Edwards Co., Kan. Capt. Vernay was wounded at Fort Donelson, where his regiment was badly cut up, but got back in time to take part in the battle of Shiloh. For two years he was additional aid on the staff of Gen. McPherson. Gen. Rogers, of Eureka, Kan., has been in the city for some time. Gen. Rogers entered the 15th Ill. at its formation. By the time that Shiloh was fought he had risen to be a Captain, and that action made him Lieutenant-Colonel. He subsequently rose to the command of a brigade, and made a fine record from first to last. Since the close of the war he has practiced law, and is regarded as one of the best stumpspeakers in Kansas. He is an active G.A.R. man and an efficient member of Dick Yates Post, Eureka, Kan., which he succeded in having named after his old friend, the War Gov ernor of Illinois. Gen. Rogers is a candidate for appointment as Superintendent of Indian Schools, Gen. M. R. M. Wallace, formerly Colonel of the 4th Ill. Cav., now a Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Chicago, The gallant Gen. W. H. L. Wallace, who was killed at brother of Gen. Wallace. The genial Col. Henry de B. Clay, Collector of Customs at Newport News, and Commander of the Department of Virginia, G.A.R., was a welcome caller.

"CHESTER A. ARTHUR, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW." A ripple of sensation was caused here during the week by the receipt of nicely-printed cards containing this aunouncement:

NEW YORK, April 7, 1885. DEAE Siz: On the 15th inst. Mr. Chester A Arthur will resume the practice of the law, and connect himself with our firm as counsel.

Yours, respectfully, KNEVALS & RANSOM. The firm has fitted up a splendid suite of rooms in one of the prominent buildings in New York, and Mr. Arthur's private office will be a stunning exhibition of fine furniture and gorgeous upholstery. "Mr. Arthur," said a member of the firm, "will resume active relations with the firm chiefly in the character of adviser in cases. He will go into court frequently, but less than the other members." ARE THEY MEMBERS OF THE G.A.R.?

Since their appointment quite a number of inquiries have reached us as to whether Gens. Black and Vilas are members of the G.A.R. If our inquirers had read THE NATIONAL TRIB-UNE with reasonable care, they would have found in the issue of March 26 a very flattering indersement of Gen. Black by the comrades of his own Post-Kenesaw, No. 77, Danville, Ill. A note of inquiry to Gen. Vilas elicited this

AN ILL-BRED LITTLE BRAT. It is a painful fact that so much of the energies of the office-holders here seem to have been expended in crowding themselves forward that there has been no force left for a push toward securing decent breeding for themselves and families. For instance, at the reception given by the wife of a prominent official recently, her boy walked up to Lieut. Greely, and said in a shrill treble that reached every ear:

"Say, did you eat any of that Dutchman up The effect upon the poor Lieutenaut was awful, but he managed to reply quietly:

"O, no, my little man." "Well, who did cat him, then?" persisted the

THE FIGHT FOR PRECEDENCE. The ladies interested say that the war over a truce exists until after the opening of the season next December. The order of precedence which they will insist upon is as follows: I.-The President. II.—The Vice-President.

III.—The Speaker of the House of Representatives.

IV.—The Chief Justice. V .- The Senators. VI.-The House of Representatives.

VII.—The Associate Justices of the Supreme Court.

The wives of the officials shall take rank ex pisters and daughters shall not enjoy the bene- I Remedy.

fits of this rating. The great obstacle in the way is the status of Miss Cleveland, and it is understood that this has been adjusted by concedling her the position of the First Lady of the Nation when inside the White House Grounds, but outside of them she is to have no other precedence than any other lady. The question pow under anxious consideration is what place shall be allotted to Mrs. Blaine, as the wife of the man who narrowly escaped being Presi-

THE GOVERNORSHIP OF THE SOLDIERS' HOME. It has been a custom, dating back many years, to change the Governor of the Soldiers' Home every four years, and as Gen. Sturgis, the present incumbent, will have completed that term on the 25th of this month, it is generally understood that he will be removed. The law now requires that the office shall be filled by a retired Army officer, and officers on the Retired List who are anxious to secure the appointment are sending in their applications. About a dozen applications have already been received at the War Department. Among the prominent spplicants are Gen. Augur, Gen. Hunt, Col. E. B. Alexander, Col. McKlibben and N. B. Sweitzer. Ex-Quartermaster-General Rufus Ingalls is also said to be desirous of the place.

COUNTERFEIT SILVER DOLLARS.

The Treasury Department feels some alarm lest the discrepancy between metallic and face value of the silver dollar may induce parties to go into the extensive manufacture of the coin. At present prices of silver there is about 83 cents worth of the metal in the standard dollar. It can be coined by private parties for less than five cents, which would leave a net profit of about 12 cents. The only protection that the Government and the people have is that the workmanship and the machinery of the mints are of a much higher character than counterfeiters will be able to command.

THE GETTYSBURG EXCURSION. J. H. Stine, Historian, First Corps; Col. J. R. Thompson and Maj. N. B. All the fine canes that come to Washington are not for President Cleveland. Comrade W. R. Thrielkel, late of Co. PICTURE OF GEN. GRANT. I. W. Taber, the well-known photograper, of San Francisco, has produced what Col. Fred. Grant pronounces the latest and best picture of his father. It shows the old General as he appeared Sept. 22, 1879.

Mr. Fred. Eaton, of Toledo, O., one of the leading dry goods merchants of the West, was this statement to your Excellency, and to invoke in the city this week visiting his brother, Gen. in behalf of our worthy comrades in the Govern-Eaton, the distinguished Commissioner of Education. Gen. Eaton went out as Chaplain of the 27th Ohio, but it was found that he was the acts of Congress relating to ex-soldiers, their | much more useful as an organizer and administrator, for which he has brilliant ability. and the Administration. MISCELLANEOUS CHAT.

Miss Folsom, of Buffalo, now Miss Cleveland's guest at the White House, is voted the prettiest girl in Washington by the swells. John A. Rawlins Post, No. 1, at the meeting in this city on the 10th inst., voted to attend in a body, with full uniform, the Reunion of more May 6 and 7. It was determined to hold a large Camp fire at the next meeting, for CALLERS AT THE NATIONAL TRIBUNE OFFICE. which a stated program of exercises will be arranged. The Department officers visited and inspected the Post, and complimented the officers and members upon the excellent condition of the organization. The Spring operations in the public reservations began Saturday last, and it is claimed that the parks will be put in a more beautiful condition than ever before. Twice the number of plants will be set out and numerous improvements made. Washington circle will be entirely rearranged, and the new Garfield park, on the site of the old canal, will for the first time be cultivated.

The Care of Children.

Boston, Mass.-A leading medical journal thinks it is about time mothers should know how seriously the health of children is imperilled by the use of preparations containing morphia and opium, and given for the cure of colds and coughs. The chemist of the Brooklyn Board of Health, Otto Grothe, Ph. D., a graduate of the University of Kiel, Germany, and the funeral sermon had been preached in certifies officially that recently a harmless and the head of his division at Shiloh, was a yet effective article for such complaints has come to his notice. He refers to the newly discovered Red Star Cough Cure, which he found purely vegetable.

FRANCE AND CHINA.

Peace Negotiations in Progress-Difficulties which Beset the French Troops.

The Franco-Chinese troubles will probably come to a speedy termination, peace negotiations being in progress. China undoubtedly has had much the best of the affair so far, and France is thoroughly tired and disgusted with the campaign. A correspondent, in a recent letter, gives the following picture of the difficulties and miseries the French troops have to undergo while on their marches: A soapy soil, as treacherous and slippery as the worst kind of sleet, covers the narrow footpaths. Impossible to preserve one's balance, and yet, if one does not preserve it, one must fall into the ricefields awaiting him on either hand, with their deceptive quagmires. Six thousand Coolies are hired to drag the cannon along and to carry the baggage. Clad only with a single rag flung over their shoulders, they have passed all night in the mud, under a fine rain that stings the face. One feels chilled through merely at the sight of their yellow limbs thus exposed to the biting air of these cold mornings. Poor human beasts of burden!—shivering with misery,-their faces brutalized by suffering, their limbs numbed with cold, -you see them once more harness themselves to the wagon-shafts and to the cables of the field-pieces. The French artillerymen join them, and the work of moving the gues recommences. Often the pathway is less than 69 centimeters wide—the necessary breadth for the support of the two wheels of the gun-carriages; then the soldiers and Coolies descend together into the rice fields, and wade through the water, trying to support one wheel while the gun is pushed along upon the other. Further on the pathway ends in a hole; the guns altogether disappear, or are half swallowed up; squadrons of Coolles rush in to re-enforce us, and when we get out of these terrible passes, soldiers, Coolies, and cannons are all unrecognizable; the uniforms are coloriess and the guns look like shapeless logs that have been roded in rivers of mud. We advance along these nameless routes under a drizzle that stings the skin like sleet, and under a gray tog.

A New Orleans paper refers editorially to the wonderful restoration to health of Mr. T. Posey, druggist, 225 Canal street, that city, who some time ago was prostrated by an excruciating attack of sciatica. After he had suffered much, his wife applied St. Jacobs Oil, which cured him promptly and entirely.

A Preacher Running a Roller-Skating Rink. Rev. Edward D. Kelsey, of the Seventh Presbyterian Church, New York City, runs a roller-skating rink next door to his church. A boy in his employ last week charged Margaret as "proceedings" and "bright." but it shows a Welsh, 18 years of age, with having concealed state of manners in the family that would dis- a pair of skates under her skirts. The young woman was searched, and although no skates were found, she was locked up all night in the station-house on Mr. Kelsey's charge of potit larceny. Police Justice Gorman refused to rethe question of precedence is not ended-only ceive the complaint on the evidence the following morning, and said to the clergyman: "As I understand the prayer, it is 'lead us not into temptation.' I do not think roller-skating rinks carry out the sentiment of that prayer."

The Canadian Bebellion.

A telegram has been received at Ottawa, Ont., from Inspector Dickens (son of Charles Dickens, the famous novelist), who is in command of the mounted police sent to Fort Pitt to quell the Riel rebellion, announcing a massacre by the half-breeds and Indians at Froz Lake, a settlement about 40 miles north of that place. The exact extent of the outrage is not known, but it is believed that 14 persons, including several women, were among the victims. A general Indian rising is feared, and statements are in circulation that the Gros Ventres, the Kootenays, and the Crows are in arms on the other side of the boundary line; that a large fighting party had moved north. via the Bear's Paw Mountains, and encamped near Milk River, on the way to Cypress Hills; that other suspicious movements had been observed at different points in the Northwest, and that Riel had made arrangements to leave Prince Albert as soon as the troops were well north, and, taking a horse, dash down to the boundary and take charge of the united army of Indians and half-breeds, intent upon scouring the country.

It is rumored that the Canadian troops had a fight with Riel's men about 30 miles from Humbolt, and that 80 were killed, but the report lacks confirmation.

The Isthmian Troubles. The past week has brought about little change in the condition of affairs at Panama. Capt. S. Norton, commanding the frigate Shenlanded 150 officers, seamen and marines to assist in preserving order and protect the property of American citizens there. He received orders from Secretary Whitney to protect railway and steamship companies' property and lives and the property of American citizens, and, so far as his force permitted, to keep the transit open. Capt. Norton was enjoined not to interfere in any way in conflicts between local forces

The City of Para, which left New York on the 3d inst, with 202 marines, arrived at Aspinwall on the 11th. Admiral Jouett telegraphed Secretary Whitney on the same day from Colon as follows: "The Tennessee arrived to-day. All well. I shall open transit to-morrow and keep it open. Everything is quiet here, but trouble is feared at Panama. I shall send 100 men to Panama to-morrow."

Army of the Potomac Bennion.

The arrangements for the Reunion of the Army of the Potomac at Baltimore on the 6th and 7th of May are progressing favorably, and the indications are that the occasion will at least equal any of the kind that has preceded mittee was held on the 7th, which was fully attended, and an outline of the proposed entertainment of those who withstood the war will be worthy of the city and the guests. The committee is composed of gentlemen who faced each | into the water, and leaping in after him locked other on fields of carnage, and none are more him in his arms. Preparations are being made in Brooklyn for attending the Rennion. About 50 members of the organization from Brooklyn will attend. Gen. Grant, who was elected President of the society last June, will, it is believed, be succeeded either by Gen. McClellan, Slocum or McMahon.

Grand Army National Encampment. Un to the present time the Executive Committee of Arrangements for the Grand Army National Encampment at Portland, Me., has assigned quarters for over 11,000 comrades who will attend the Encampment. These applications have come from the States of Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Ohio, Michigan, Minnesota, New Jersey, Vermont, California, New York. Nebraska and Maine, and from Washington Territory.

Divorced After Living Together 50 Years. The petition for divorce of Edward M. Walte mire, from his wife Maria, on the ground of abandonment, was granted at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., last week. Mr. Waltemire is a well-to-do farmer of Stamford, Duchess County, and both he and his wife are over 70 years old. They were married in 1834, and lived together until some time in 1884, when the wife left her husband's house and went to live with one of her sous. The couple have two sons over 40 years of age. The husband's petition was granted without costs to either party. Portrait of Gen. Grant.

The Toledo Blade Company has produced a very fine lithograph portrait of Gen. Grant, which is as accurate a likeness as a photograph, and shows the face of the old hero as it is best remembered by millions of Americans. It is a splendid souvenir of the Nation's greatest man, and will be a fine ornament for any parior.

Nearly Buried Alive.

Last Thursday morning Pleasant Christian Wortly, a colored citizen of Liberty, Bedford o., Va., awoke and found his wife, who had been sick some time, apparently dead. Friends were called in and decided that she was no more. The funeral preparations were made, the church before a large congregration, when the attending physician, who had just heard of the circumstances, hurriedly appeared. He stopped the funeral, dismissed the mourners, opened the coffin and had the body taken back home. His suspicions of premature action were fully verified when an examination was made. Restoratives were applied, and the woman is now in a fair way to recovery.

Onite an excitement was caused on one of our crowded thoroughfares a few evenings ago at the sight of a well-dressed lady suddenly falling to the sidewalk as if dead. After being carried into the nearest house she revived and stated that having received instructions from her physician to procure from the drug store a bottle of Grae-fenberg Catholicon, which would cure her of her weak-ness and female complaint, she was on the way to purchase the remedy. Hiram Foulk, an elderly and eccentric bachclor of some property, who lived alone on a farm near Independence, Kan., was murdered Friday night by some unknown person, who then stole a horse and escaped. The crime was not discovered until Sunday, when Foulk's body was found in a well and the premises untenanted except by an old watch-dog, which had been shot in the leg. Foulk's assailant had shot him in the head, thrown his body into the well, and then ransacked the house. A bag was found concealed on Foulk's person containing $1,700

The Barries Movement.

The death of Gen. Barries has not vet settled the troubles which have been agitating the Republics of Central America, and the President of Salvador wants the active aid of Mexico in order to terminate the war quickly, with as little loss of life as possible. It is the common belief that President Diaz will accede to Salvador's request, and that Congress will grant the necessary authority for a declaration of war against Gautemala.

Less than a month ago the Mexican Government bought in New York, for cash, $2,000,000 worth of arms, and will soon order more. The Mexican papers advocate a declaration of war against Gautemala without delay. Gen. Manuel Lizandro Barillas, one of the two Vice-Presidents of Guatemala, and the constitutional successor to Barrios, who fell in battle on the Salvadorian frontier April 2d, has assumed the duties of President. Dr. A. M. Arroyo, who has been President of the Legislature, becomes Minister of Foreign Affairs. M. J. Dardon, who has been President of the Supreme Court, becomes Minister of War, and Martinez Sobial is made Minister of the Inte-

Gen. Barillas is said to be a man of wealth, who is likely to be conservative in his pelicy, and while he was a friend of Barrios and fell in with him in his scheme for the union of the Central American States, it is unlikely that he will care to carry on the war against the States of Salvador, Costa Rica and Nicaragua begun by Barrios. Gen. Barillas was appointed andoah, arrived at Panama last week and to the office of Vice-President, which he held when Barrios was President, and from which he now succeeds to Barrios's place by the Assembly of the State, which is now said to be opposed to the Barrios project of securing a union of the Central American States by force. It is stated that a treaty of peace has been signed between the Governments of San Salvador and Honduras, and the latter Republic has joined the alliance against Guatemala. No arrangement has as yet been made with Guatemala. The armies of San Salvador and her allies are advancing on the city of Guatemala from various points, and are everywhere welcomed by the populace. Many of the disbanded Guatemalan troops are joining the allied forces.
